

BEST WEBSITE

There was a stunning lack of entrants in this category. Considering that the Internet and various web productions have gained so much ground in how journalism is seen, that is a surprise. I feel compelled to declare a winner because The Laval News site is so all-round excellent and Kahnawake News is also excellent in its much smaller niche.

THE LAVAL NEWS

It would be hard to find a big-city daily with a better website than this community newspaper site.
<http://www.lavalnews.ca>

IORI:WASE

For the size and scope of its community, this website is an outstanding production.
<http://www.kahnawakenews.com>

Judge: Frank Touby, Editor and Associate Publisher, The Bulletin, Toronto, ON • Number of entries in the Best Website category: 2

BEST HEADLINE WRITING

New fish study reels in results one catch at a time
CP Rail choo-choo-chooses to spray lines for safety
Erect Peacekeeper tower won't shrink in cold, says chief

Four horsemen of the art-pocalypse runs tomorrow

1

S. BONSPIEL, L. JILES, D. MARQUIS, D. ROWE
The Eastern Door

The Eastern Door is the runaway winner for its lively and unpredictable headlines that make it near-impossible not to read the story beneath. Kudos to the hard-working headline writers who understand the job of the headline in hooking the reader.

Shaving Grace

Live and let dive

Protecting your ash

SQ officers show sangfroid

2

CARMEN MARIE FABIO
Your Local Journal

The strong, second-place finish of Your Local Journal is well-deserved for its playful and engaging headlines. The thoughtfulness and courage of the headline writer is not lost on the reader, who can't wait to turn the page to see what the paper will say next.

Fish find fecundity fix

Skinny deer coming for a tulip near you

To neigh, to neigh, around we go. Fun's up in Rupert, yo

The lowdown on what can and can't go down

3

THE STAFF
The Low Down to Hull & Back News

The Low Down's playful headlines clearly demonstrate that it knows readers, too, just want to have fun. Job well done. You got the reader's attention.

Judge: Kim Champion, Editor, The Vaughan Citizen, Vaughan, ON • Number of entries in the Best Headline Writing category: 8