BEST NEWS PHOTO

As I went through the entries I was getting dismayed with the lack of "news" photos. There were many great "feature" photos. But then as I saw the last several photos I was delighted to see some great "news" photos. The Equity deserves Honourable Mention for its excellent Microburst photo.

This photo of a "news" event is excellently composed. It makes one feel like they are right there at the march. My only criticism is that there is no cut-line or news story to explain it.

A fire destroyed several attached barns at a farm located along Hwy. 148 in Bristol on April 23.

The cause is undetermined but criminal activity is not suspected, said Bristol Fire Chief Kevin Kluke.

Firefighters from the Bristol, Shawville/Clarendon and Pontiac fire departments arrived at the scene at about 11 a.m. and some firefighters until about

The Eastern Door

This photo convenes the emotion of the event and the personal meaning to the subject. My only criticism is that with any great photo it should be given more prominence on the page. Make it larger and use it to draw the readers into the story!
