

BEST FRONT PAGE

THE EQUITY
The voice of the Pontiac since 1983
Volume 133, Issue No. 12
Wednesday, March 23, 2016 1 dollar

1 Dogs make recoveryies

Church and Hall vandalized

Grand finale

Tourist route in the works

Places hope in hops

NUNATSIAQ NEWS
YEAR 43 • NUMBER 2 • APRIL 8, 2016

When my ship comes in
New guidelines for Arctic shipping — 3

Lost and found
MLA, others, rescued on the land — 5

Mine sector slump should rebound says economist

Prints charming
Kids arts workshop in Cape Dorset — 12

THE LOW DOWN
TO HULL & BACK NEWS
April 6 - April 12, 2016
$1.25 (tax included)

A THURSDAY NIGHT FROM HELL

Inferno...

Chelsea garage razed in blaze

A foot deep in Wakefield basements

Chelsea roads: A tale of two gritties

Worst joke of the week

Mine sector slump should rebound says economist

Low base metal prices dampen Nunavut resource economy

Prints charming
Kids arts workshop in Cape Dorset — 12

Story of my life
A tale of abuse and escape — 13

2

NUNATSIAQ NEWS
A compelling front page thanks to a striking main photo and clean, sharp pointers to inside stories.

3

THE LOW DOWN TO HULL & BACK NEWS
Two unrelated stories about disasters - a fire and flooding - are deftly brought together for a memorable front page.

Judge: Andy Riga, Reporter, Montreal Gazette, Montreal, QC • Number of entries in the Best Front Page category: 12