

QUILL AWARDS

The Canadian Community Newspapers Association recognizes the following people for their long service to their newspaper or association:

CCNA GOLD QUILL AWARD

The Gold Quill Award recognizes service of 50 years or more. It is presented to any individual who has been actively engaged in the newspaper industry or an individual who in the view of the nominating regional affiliated association has made a substantial contribution to the newspaper industry. The purpose of this honour is to pay tribute to those who have served Canada's newspaper industry regardless of position or title for a minimum 50 years.

Bulletin d'Aylmer, Pontiac Journal du Pontiac, The West Quebec Post
Fred Ryan

CCNA SILVER QUILL AWARD

The Silver Quill Award recognizes service of 25 years or more. It is presented to any individual who has been actively engaged in the newspaper industry, or an individual who in the view of the nominating regional affiliated association has made a substantial contribution to the newspaper industry. The purpose of this honour is to pay tribute to those who have served Canada's newspaper industry regardless of position or title for a minimum 25 years.

The Gaspé Spec
Joan Imhoff

CCNA BRONZE QUILL AWARD

Publishers of member newspapers may recognize long and distinguished service of staff members who do not qualify for Gold or Silver Quills by presenting them with a Bronze Quill award.

Bulletin d'Aylmer
Charles Georges Viau

- OUR QCNA FAMILY -

